

Martin Osborne

Executive Director

Martin Osborne began his Banking career in 1983 at NatWest Bank in a retail environment holding several clerical positions until his departure in August 1989. He completed his independent studies towards the Certificate of Chartered Institute of Bankers “Cert CIB” qualification in the early 1990’s. In September 1989, Mr. Osborne joined Bank of Beirut (UK) Ltd (formerly Beirut Riyad Bank s.a.l, London Branch) as part of the Credit Control function.

Prior to the acquisition of Beirut Riyad Bank by the Bank of Beirut Group in 2002, he held several positions within key operational areas including credit, treasury, back office operations, IT and finance.

In 2002, as part of the newly authorised UK subsidiary, he was appointed as Manager Administration and joined the Banks’ Management Committee. Following internal restructuring in March 2016, he was appointed Head of Finance, IT Systems and Administration Services, until his appointment in August 2016 to the Board, as Executive Director – Finance and Operations.
